#	NAME	DESCRIPTION
1	American Association of University Women	This $500 scholarship may be awarded to a graduating senior girl with a minimum 3.0 GPA who, in an essay, expresses educational and career goals which demonstrate an appreciation of and a willingness to pursue the AAUW mission of advancing equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research. Applicants should include the information required by this scholarship using the specific essay listed on the Directory Page. (RCSF web pages 28 through 34).
2	The Patty Ahearn-Victoria Elementary School Scholarship	This $500 scholarship may be awarded to a graduating senior from any Redlands Unified high school who has a 2.5 GPA or higher. This student must have attended Victoria Elementary School for at least three years and has continued to follow the Victoria Peace Builder's Pledge.
3	Assistance League Professional Women of Redlands, "PoWeR To Continue Learning" Scholarship	This $1000 scholarship may be awarded by the Professional Women of Redlands, a committee of the Assistance League of Redlands, to a graduating young woman who possesses a minimum 2.5 GPA, has participated in at least one school activity, and has demonstrated some type of community service. Financial need is also a consideration. The recipient must be planning to attend a two-year degree or certification program or four-year college. Preference will be given to a student who will be the first in her family to obtain a college degree or professional certification program. A short essay must be attached on the topic, Describe an adversity you have faced and overcome and how this has helped motivate you to continue your education. Also, include a description of your participation in school activities and community service, evidence of financial need and why you want to continue your education. Applicants should include the information required by this scholarship using the specific essay listed on the Directory Page. (RCSF web pages 28 through 34).
4	Nicholas C. Carter Memorial Scholarship	This $1000 scholarship may be awarded to a graduating male senior who has lettered in junior varsity or varsity soccer. Preference will be given to students who share Nicholas Carter's passion for soccer, culinary arts and/or military service. Applicants should present a 1 or 2 page essay demonstrating the impact that one of these interests has had in their life. The essay is intended to shed light upon the student's passion rather than provide a proficiency in writing. Students may feel free to include humor, recount personal events or find other creative ways to let their personality be the focus of the essay. Applicants should include the information required by this scholarship using the specific essay listed on the Directory Page. (RCSF web pages 28 through 34).

5	Cesar E. Chavez Memorial Scholarship	This $1000 scholarship may be awarded to a graduating senior who has shown exemplary leadership, given community service, and shows financial need. It celebrates Cesar E. Chavez's legacy of compassion, education and equality for all Americans. Please write a short essay explaining how you exemplify his spirit and how you intend to further honor it. Applicants should include the information required by this scholarship using the specific essay listed on the Directory Page. (RCSF web pages 28 through 34).
6	Grove School PTG Scholarship	These $500 scholarships may be awarded to outstanding students who have fully embraced the Montessori educational philosophy. Applicants should submit a 500 word essay following the prompt: How will you apply the lessons of your Montessori education to your college experience. The selection committee will be looking for specific examples from your high school experience that demonstrate your achievements in areas such as citizenship, community service, interdisciplinary or growth as an independent learner. Applicants should include the information required by this scholarship using the specific essay listed on the Directory Page. (RCSF web pages 28 through 34).
7	Kiwanis Club of Redlands Foundation Academic and Community Service Scholarship	One $4,000 scholarship may be awarded to a student with the following qualifications: extracurricular activity involvement with demonstrated leadership ability, a high level of community service, outstanding citizenship, and a high GPA upon graduation from high school. The recipients will be selected through an interviewing process conducted by the Kiwanis Club of Redlands Foundation committee. This scholarship will be awarded over a 4-year period to a student planning on attending either a 4-year college or university or a 2-year college taking transfer curriculum. The award will be paid over a 4-year period directly to the recipient's chosen institution or to the recipient upon written request to the Kiwanis Scholarship Foundation, including a copy of the student's current class class schedule and a copy of a valid student ID. A completed signed student contact information card must be submitted to the Kiwanis Club of Redlands Foundation before the disbursement of scholarship funds will be authorized.
8	Owen Locke Memorial Scholarship	These $500 scholarships may be awarded to students with a 3.0 GPA or above and who demonstrate financial need. Please note you may not have applied for other Owen Locke scholarships offered by an organization other than the RCSF.
9	Robert L. Morlan Redlands Area Interfaith Council Scholarship	This $300 scholarship may be awarded to a graduating senior. The scholarship was created from the long history of promoting love and respect among all of the people of faith in our community. The student must provide a one-page essay using the following prompt: How I Can Be an Agent of Peace. Applicants should include the information required by this scholarship using the specific essay listed on the Directory Page. (RCSF web pages 28 through 34).
10	Optimist Club of Redlands Foundation Scholarship	This $500 scholarship may be awarded to an outstanding student who has a positive attitude and has been involvement in service to the community.

11	Erick D. Potter Memorial	This $1500 scholarship may be awarded to a graduating senior with a 3.0 or greater GPA who intends to pursue a career in Engineering. Special consideration will be given to applicants involved in non-school service groups such as church or community service.
12	Redlands Community Hospital Auxiliary Scholarship	This $1000 scholarship may be awarded to a graduating senior who will attend a college or university and major in some type of allied-health program. The recipient must be an active Redlands Community Hospital junior volunteer and must complete a minimum of 100 hours of volunteer service by the end of the school year.
13	Redlands Rotary Club Foundation Scholarship	Two $1000 scholarships may be awarded to graduating seniors who have demonstrated high academic achievement, outstanding citizenship, and service to school and community.
